

A Resolution to Make Forced Unionization Illegal

WHEREAS, People are being forced to join unions in the companies they work for in order to keep their jobs

WHEREAS, These people are being forced to publicly support, including, but not limited to political parties, parades, certain political issues, and other social issues.

WHEREAS, Over 23 states have companies that force people to join unions and automatically deduct union fees from their paychecks.

WHEREAS, Forced unionization goes against first amendment rights.

WHEREAS, Union participation is dropping in recent years because of forced unionization.

WHEREAS, Laws have been set up to protect workers in other forms, making unions unnecessary.

RESOLVED, Forced unionization will become illegal in the U.S.

Introduced by Chanhassen High School Congressional Debate Team