

A Resolution to Regulate the Internet as a Public Utility

- 1 WHEREAS, Internet service across the United States lacks in both speed and quality;
2 and
3
4 WHEREAS, The internet continues play an ever larger part in our everyday lives; and 5
6 WHEREAS, Consumers are shortchanged by companies providing poor service; and 7
8 WHEREAS, The current classification of the internet is unclear, leading to multiple
9 interpretations of the FCC's rulings on the matter; therefore, be it
10
11 RESOLVED By the Student Congress here assembled that the internet ought to be 12 classified as a public utility and regulated as such.

Respectfully submitted by Forest Lake High School